SAMPLE ACTIVITIES

Activities on offer at our English school in Vancouver

Our language school in Vancouver offers a great variety of activities throughout the year. Vancouver is an exceptionally beautiful and fun city. It always ranks well on the quality of life index and you will never be short of things to do either in the densely populated city or in the vast wilderness of British Columbia.

Below we highlight just an example of some of the activities available to you. Many varied activities are available each week. Most of these are free of charge, with a small entrance fee and travel costs for some.

Example activities in summer

| Mon | Tue | Wed | Thu | Fri | Sat | Sun |
|-----------------------|--|-----------------------------|--|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|
| After school drinks 🍷 | Bike ride at Stanley Park ($12) 🚴 | Extra Help Club | Conversation Club Library Square (+19) | Graduation 🎓 | Day trip to Tofino ($289) 🚌 | |
| | Conversation Club Queen Elizabeth Park | Paddleboard ($25) | White Boat Party ($35) | Cinema 🎬 Public House (+19) | Day trip to Victoria ($110) 🚌 | City tour + lunch |
| After school drinks 🍷 | Deep Cove Hiking | Pub night (+19) 🍻 | Conversation Club Library Square (+19) | Graduation 🎓 | Day trip to Whistler ($49) | City tour + lunch |
| | Conversation Club | Grouse Mountain ($10-45) 🏔 | | Cinema 🎬 Public House (+19) | Two-day trip to Seattle ($199) 🚌 | |

Surrounded by mountains and situated on the coast, Vancouver is also one of the most densely-populated cities in North America. Modern skyscrapers provide an impressive skyline for the lower mainland region of British Columbia. One of North America's most popular filming locations, Greater Vancouver is often referred to in the industry by its nickname "Hollywood North".

Please note: This is just an example of what is on offer. All activities run by our schools are seasonal and depend on availability and student numbers.
