

Activities available at our English school in New York

New York, New York. So good they named it twice. This is one of the most economically important and powerful cities in the world. An incredible and dazzling place where you will never get bored!

Explore the Big Apple with our English school's activity programme. Fully immerse yourself in American culture with several different activities each week. Some activities are not included so will incur an additional fee. For example: a Yankees game, a cruise, or beating your new English-speaking friends at laser tag!

Our school would be happy to provide information for you on what to do and where to go in this fantastic city!
