Activities on offer at our English school in Torquay

Soak up the charm of this quintessential English seaside town. Situated along the 'English Riviera' and known for its beaches, palm trees and vibrant harbourside, it is a popular destination for studying English. When it comes to entertainment, you'll be spoilt for choice. From prehistoric caves, water sports and zoos to theatres, festivals and shopping, you won't be bored in Torquay!

Below you will find an example of the many activities that our English language school runs throughout the year.

Our school arranges a different programme each week. All activities are optional. Most activities are arranged free of charge, but some will incur an additional fee. The school will help you decide what to do and where to go, either exploring Torquay by yourself or with your new friends!
